

3rd Research Training Seminar in Denmark

24th of April 2020

09:30 – 09:45	Welcome & overview of the day
09:45 – 10:30	Animal welfare and research training – Sabrina Brando MSc.
10:30 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 11:45	Does participation in psychophysical research improve welfare in captive animals? Case study of two grey seals (Halichoerus grypus) - Dr. Kirstin Anderson Hansen
11:45 – 12:30	Scientific animal training: Benefit or detriment for animal welfare? Examples from the work at the Marine Science Center” – Dr. Sven Wieskotten
12:30 – 13:00	Discussion - Q&A
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:45	Training wild birds for research – Martina Schiestl MSc.
14:45 – 15:30	Live bird research training session
15:30 – 16:00	Break
16:00 – 16:30	Assessing welfare through behavioral diversity in captive grey seals - Christina Kaas Nordholt Andersen
16:30 – 17:30	Problem solving workshop
17:30 – 18:00	Q&A
18:00	Social event

"Dedicated to caring for animals and the people who care for them."

3rd Research Training Seminar - Denmark 25th of April 2020

09:30 – 09:45	Welcome & overview of the day
09:45 – 10:45	Training pet dogs to investigate their cognitive abilities by using different methods - Sabrina Karl MSc.
10:45 – 11:15	Break
11:15 – 12:00	Creative trainers and their contribution to cognitive research in animals - Sara Torres Ortiz MSc.
12:00 – 13:00	Measuring cognitive-affective appraisal processes. One approach to assess the subjective perception of welfare in farm animals - Dr. Jenny Stracke
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:45	Research as tool for animal and trainer enrichment – Dr. Magnus Wahlberg
14:45 – 15:30	Live seal research training session
15:30 – 16:00	Break
16:00 – 17:00	Future directions - Q&A - Closure